Stantonville, TN
McNairy County

i, jason caissie declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is an account of personal experience and personal knowledge and is true and correct as i remember it:

On May, 28, 2015, at 9:35 am, I called the clerk of court in Raleigh MS and asked for a certified court record. She told me that the tickets would be the court record until I go to court. I told her that I was transferring the case to another court and I needed a certified copy of the court record for myself and the clerk told me that the "other court" needed to be the one that requested a certified court record. I could not get a copy unless the other court requested it.

Again, on May 29, 2015, I called and asked the clerk of court in Raleigh how much it would cost to get the certified court record. She again told me that I could not get anything until I go to court.

i, declare under penalty of perjury 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1746 under the laws of the united states of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
